

Takashi Enomoto
GBDe Overall Chair 2010
Senior Executive Vice President & Executive Board Member,
NTT DATA CORPORATION

Joined Nippon Telephone & Telegraph Corporation (known as NTT) in April 1975, where he entered in the Data Communications Division and started his long career in the filed of system integration. In 1988, NTT DATA CORPORATION was spun off from NTT Corporation as a private corporation to take over the data communication operations.

In February 1990, he was appointed Senior Manager of the US branch, and enlarged its business in the US IT market until being appointed Senior Manager of Personnel Department back in Tokyo Headquarters in 1992.

Career at NTT Data,

- April 1996 President of M.I.S.I. co.,Ltd., a full service IT resources firm headquartered in NY, a NTT Data subsidiary.
- April 1999 Senior Executive Manager of Global Business Department
- July 2001 Senior Executive Manager of Industrial System Sector
- June 2003 Director & Senior Executive Manager of Personnel Department
- June 2005 Senior Vice President & Director
- June 2007 Executive Vice President & Executive Board Member
- June 2008 Senior Executive Vice President & Executive Board Member
- July 2009 Global IT Service Company President

Completed his studies of economics at Tokyo Metropolitan University with a Bachelor of Arts in March 1975.

Mr. Enomoto served as Overall Chair of GBDe(Global Business Dialogue on e-Commerce) in 2008 and 2009. In 2010, the full name of GBDe was renamed into Global Business Dialogue on e-Society while the abbreviation(GBDe) has been kept, and Mr. Enomoto has stayed on GBDe Overall Chair.