4. The sub-commissions and centers have their respective secretariats, which handle the day-to-day work and perform the functions of the Secretariat of CIETAC in accordance with these Rules in cases accepted and administered by them under the direction of the secretary-general of the respective sub-commission or center.

5. The parties may agree to submit their disputes to CIETAC or a sub-commission/center of CIETAC for arbitration. Where the parties have agreed to arbitration by CIETAC, the Secretariat of CIETAC shall accept and administer the case. Where the parties have agreed to arbitration by a sub-commission/center, the secretariat of the sub-commission/center shall accept and administer the case. Where the parties have agreed to arbitration by CIETAC in a city where a sub-commission/center is located, the secretariat of the sub-commission/center shall accept and administer the case. Where the sub-commission/center agreed upon by the parties does not exist, or where the agreement is ambiguous, the Secretariat of CIETAC shall accept and administer the case. In the event of any dispute, a decision shall be made by CIETAC.

6. Where a case is administered by the secretariat of a sub-commission/center, the functions and duties performed by the Secretary-General of CIETAC under these Rules may, by his/her authorization, be performed by the secretary-general of the relevant sub-commission/center.

1. International or foreign-related disputes;
2. Disputes related to the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, the Macao Special Administrative Region and the Taiwan region; and
3. Domestic disputes.

Article 4 Scope of Application

1. These Rules uniformly apply to CIETAC and its sub-commissions and centers.

2. The parties shall be deemed to have agreed to arbitration in accordance with these Rules if they have provided for arbitration by CIETAC.

3. Where the parties agree to refer their dispute to CIETAC for arbitration but have agreed on a modification of these Rules or have agreed on the application of other arbitration rules, the parties’ agreement shall prevail unless such agreement is inoperative or in conflict with a mandatory provision of the law as it is applicable to the arbitration proceedings. Where the parties have agreed on the application of other arbitration rules, CIETAC shall perform the relevant administrative duties.

4. Where the parties agree to refer their dispute to arbitration under these Rules without providing the name of an arbitration institution, they shall be deemed to have agreed to refer the dispute to arbitration by CIETAC.

5. Where the parties agree to refer their disputes to arbitration under CIETAC’s customized arbitration rules for a specific trade or profession, the parties’ agreement shall prevail. However, if the dispute falls outside the scope of the specific rules, these Rules shall apply.

Article 5 Arbitration Agreement

1. CIETAC shall, upon the written application of a party, accept a case in accordance with an arbitration agreement concluded between the parties, either before or after the occurrence of the dispute, in which it is provided that disputes are to be referred to arbitration by CIETAC.

2. An arbitration agreement means an arbitration clause in a contract or any other form of a written agreement concluded between the parties providing for the settlement of disputes by arbitration.

3. The arbitration agreement shall be in writing. An arbitration agreement is in writing if it is contained in the tangible form of a document such as a contract, letter, telegram, telex, fax, EDI, or email. An arbitration agreement shall be deemed to exist where its existence is asserted by one party and not denied by the other during the exchange of the Request for Arbitration and the Statement of Defense.

4. Where the law as it applies to an arbitration agreement has different provisions as to the form and validity of the arbitration agreement, those provisions shall prevail.

5. An arbitration clause contained in a contract shall be treated as a clause independent and separate from all other clauses of the contract, and an arbitration agreement attached to a contract shall also be treated as independent and separate from all other clauses of the contract. The validity of an arbitration clause or an arbitration agreement shall not be affected by any modification, cancellation, termination, transfer, expiry, invalidity, ineffectiveness, rescission or non-existence of the contract.

Article 6 Objection to Arbitration Agreement and/or Jurisdiction

1. CIETAC shall have the power to determine the existence and validity of an arbitration agreement and its jurisdiction over an arbitration case. CIETAC may, where necessary, delegate such power to the arbitral tribunal.

2. Where CIETAC is satisfied by prima facie evidence that an arbitration agreement providing for arbitration by CIETAC exists, it may make a decision based on such evidence that it has jurisdiction over the arbitration case, and the arbitration shall proceed. Such a decision shall not prevent CIETAC from making a new decision on jurisdiction based on facts and/or evidence found by the arbitral tribunal during the arbitration proceedings that are inconsistent with the prima facie evidence.

3. Where CIETAC has delegated the power to determine jurisdiction to the arbitral tribunal, the arbitral tribunal may either make a separate decision on jurisdiction during the arbitration proceedings or incorporate the decision in the final arbitral award.

4. An objection to an arbitration agreement and/or jurisdiction over an arbitration case shall be raised in writing before the first oral hearing is held by the arbitral tribunal. Where a case is to be decided on the basis of documents only, such an objection shall be raised before the submission of the first substantive defense.

5. The arbitration shall proceed notwithstanding an objection to the arbitration agreement and/or jurisdiction over the arbitration case.

6. The aforesaid objections to and/or decisions on jurisdiction by CIETAC shall include objections to and/or decisions on a party’s standing to participate in the arbitration.

7. Where CIETAC or the authorized arbitral tribunal decides that CIETAC has no jurisdiction over an arbitration case, a decision to dismiss the case shall be made. Where a case is to be dismissed before the formation of the arbitral tribunal, the decision shall be made by the Secretary-General of CIETAC. Where the case is to be dismissed after the formation of the arbitral tribunal, the decision shall be made by the arbitral tribunal.

Article 7 Place of Arbitration

1. Where the parties have agreed on the place of arbitration, the parties’ agreement shall prevail.

2. Where the parties have not agreed on the place of arbitration or their agreement is ambiguous, the place of arbitration shall be the domicile of the CIETAC or its sub-commission/center which accepts and administers the case. CIETAC may also determine the place of arbitration to be another location, having regard to the circumstances of the case.
3. The arbitral award shall be deemed as having been made at the place of arbitration.

Article 8 Service of Documents and Periods of Time

1. All documents, notices and written materials in relation to the arbitration may be delivered in person or sent by registered mail or express mail, fax, or by any other means considered proper by CIETAC or the arbitral tribunal.

2. The aforesaid arbitration documents shall be sent to the address provided by the party itself or by its representative(s), or to an address agreed by the parties. Where a party or its representative(s) has not provided an address or the parties have not agreed on the address, the arbitration documents shall be sent to such party’s address provided by the other party or its representative(s).

3. Any arbitration correspondence to a party or its representative(s) shall be deemed to have been properly served on the party if delivered to the addressee or delivered at the addressee’s place of business, registration, domicile, habitual residence or mailing address; otherwise, where, after reasonable inquiries by the other party, none of the aforesaid addresses can be found, the arbitration correspondence shall be sent by the Secretariat of CIETAC or its sub-commissions/centers to the addressee’s last known place of business, registration, domicile, habitual residence or mailing address by registered or express mail, or by any other means that can provide a record of the attempt at delivery.

4. The periods of time specified in these Rules shall begin on the day following the day when the party receives or should have received the arbitration correspondence, notices or written materials sent by the Secretariat of CIETAC or its sub-commissions/centers in the aforesaid manners.

Article 9 Bona Fide Cooperation

The parties shall proceed with the arbitration in bona fide cooperation.

Article 10 Waiver of Right to Object

A party shall be deemed to have waived its right to object where it knows or should have known that any provision of, or requirement under, these Rules has not been complied with and yet participates in or proceeds with the arbitration proceedings without promptly and explicitly submitting its objection in writing to such non-compliance.
